The Herald and Prus peated in the Philippines. In our war it was the white Yankees who made war hell for us, but now they are making it hell for the negroes in the Philipines. We were trying to smother what our people suffered, but they won't let us and now boast that General Sherman found it the best way to shorten the war. No, we old men and women can't forget, and I hope that our children and grand children will learn it all in some Southern history. The civilize I world has not forgotten Herod nor Nero nor the Duke of Alva nor the massacre of St. Bartholomew where 30,000 Prostestants were butchered in a night. But when will Teddy repent, retract and apologize? He has got it to do sooner or later or go down in history as a malicious defamer of one whose shoes he was not worthy to unloose. He and Miles will get to gether some time and some where.

Now, why does not Teddy consider the feelings of our people in his appointments to Southern offices?

Why did he not give Savannah a white man for a collector? Appointments of negroes to be postmasters and revenue collectors are an insult to us, and he knows it. If he has such affectionate regard for those negroes why not give them a place at Washington or Albany or Boston or a counsulship at Hayti or San Doto our people. The postoffice is our trysting place, a kind of Mecca, and the postmaster our confident. That officer should above all others be ac ceptable to the majority of the people.

The collector has the commerce of a city in his hands and under his control, and that commerce is all white-none of it comes from the negro race.

What excuse can he give for such appointments? None, and when is he going to retract and apologize for

BILL ARP WANTS APOLOGY

Roosevelt's Remarks About Jefferson Davis Were Wrong.

[Atlanta Constitution.]

"Once more into the breach, good friends-once more." I would like to know about what time President Roosevelt is going to retract what he wrote about President Davis. It has now been proved by the official records at Jackson, Miss., that Mr Davis never was Governor, nor was he ever a member of the Legislature of that State, and in a public address made after the act of repudiation, he declared he was opposed to it and the debt ought to be paid, and this amateur historian denounces him in his book as an arch traitor and repudiator. Mr. Davis fonght in Mexico for the honor of the flag; won the victory at Buena Vista; was desperately wounded and for five years walked with crutches; married Gereral Taylor's daughter for his first wife and didn't run away either; was secretary of war under Franklin Pierce, remodeled the curriculum at West Point and it stands to day as he framed it; was a member of the United States Senate when his State seceded and, like General Lee, he went with his people. He did not seek the presidency of the Confederacy and insisted that another be chosen. Now all this has long since been established, and if Mr. Reosevelt did not know it he could have known it. He certainly knows t now, and if he is a gentleman he will retract it and apologize to Mrs. Davis and the family and to the saintly shade of Miss Winnie and to to the people of the South. He called him an arch traitor and arch repudiator, and compared him to Benedict Arnold, and that slanderous that slander of Mr. Davis? Echo libel is in print in a book of so called answers when? history and has poisoned the minds of all the fools, fanatics and idiots who have read it. When is he going to retract?

The International Cyclopedia, ed ited by distinguised professors of Columbia University and Dartmouth College, says of Mr. Davis: "He was a ripe scholar, a vigorous writer, a splendid orator, a brave soldier, true gentleman, an accomplished statesman, a strudy champion, a proud and true patriot, a lover of liberty, a Christian hero-this is the Jefier son Davis that history will cherish" General Lee was his bosom friend and confidant and yet this so c lled his torian, this rough rider and bear hunter, praises Lee while he defames his friend, a man infinitely his supe rior in every moral attribute and every noble emotion. But maybe he will retract and apologize, though Tom Moore, says:

"But faith, fanatic faith, once wedded To some dear falsehood hugs it to the

He had better retract, for some of the old soldiers are very mad about it. G-Miss Earie Glenn, Miss Clarina They are talking about suing him for slander and garnisheeing the government for his salary. Killing bears in the wilderness won't save him nor will that little brush we had in Cuba That is perhaps the biggest little war we have ever had, and every small politician and stump orator who wants an office jumps up and says we are all brethern now. We fit and fout and bled together at San Juan and Santiago, and then we crossed the wide ocean to whip out some niggers and and we will soon all be on the pension roll. An old veteran said to me, "That little Spanish war reminds me of the fellow who was drowned at Johns town, and when he knocked at the gate St. Peter didn't recognize him and refused to let him in. 'Wby, my dear sir,' said, 'I am one of the Johnstown suffers. I was drowned in that flood.' So the good saint relented and let him in. He wandered about heaven, looking at the beautiful things and after a while cama across an man and said, 'Good morning old gentleman; glad to see you. Been here a long time, I reckon? The old man said nothing. 'I am one of the Johnstown sufferers. was drowned in that great flood.' The old man did not reply, but turned and walked slowly away. So the fellow went to St. Peter and asked O-Sallie O'Neal, Lawson Gwens, who that old man was. 'He would had a flood of his own to think Q-JG Quarton about." And now we read that all the hor-not speak to me' said he, 'though I told him I was in the great flood at Johnstown.' And St. Peter replied
